TEST FOR TEN DAY CLAUSE GONTRACT

Injunction Served on Pitcher Johnson Will Appear Before Superior Court-Decision Might Clear Way for Players to Join Feds-Chicago Go East for First Invasion.

Chicago, May 13.—Hearing on the Federal league's motion to dissolve the Cincinnati Vationals' injunction against Pitcher Johnson is set for the superior court tomorrow and on its outcome, according to President Gilmore, depend the futures of a number of ball players, Gilmore, who returned from the east today, said that if the court declined to uphold the Cincinnati-Johnson contract on the ground that the reserve rule or the ten day clause were illegal, several ball players who have signed similar contracts would find their way clear will not forecast. Coombs. at least, ball players who have signed similar contracts would find their way clear to joining the "outlaw" league. Gilmore said he would settle the differences between th Pittsburgh club and Catchr Roberts and that the latter would be instructed to return to Pittsburgh.

The Chicago Federals, led by Man-ager Tinker, left for their first in-vasion of the cast tonight, opening at Buffalo tomorrow. The team won nine of its fourteen games at home,

DAVID FILL TZ ADVISES MEMBERS OF BALL FRATERNITY

Player Will Be Expelled From the Society for Jumping Contracts Without Consulting to Advisory Board.

(From the June Baseball Magazine.) At the last annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Fraternity the following resolution was passed: the following resolution was passed:

"Resolved, That any member of the Fraternity who jumps a contract with a club before submitting his grievance to the Advisory Board of the Fraternity, or who, after submitting it to such Board, contrary to the decision of such Board, jumps said contract, shall be expelled from the organization."

tion.'
This is still the attitude of the Fraternity and neither the Advisory Board nor the President has any dis-cretion in the matter where the offense is clearly shown.

The rule was passed by the Directors because they felt it was a wise move and the officers must carry out their wishes.

Every player who jumps a contract is not only injuring his own reputation.

is not only injuring his own reputation, but that of every member of the base-ball profession.

Thi consideration may not appear very important to jumping players at present, but they will most assuredly regret their action in the future years. We appreciate the fact that a good sized bank roll placed in a player's hand to induce him to sign a contract at a liberal increase in salary is a great temptation, especially where he believes he is underpaid under his expensive contract. But it should not be a believes he is underpaid under his existing contract; but it should not be a question of getting all he can unless all he can get is gotten bonestly. The player should remember this too, that any magnate who attempts to bribe him to violate his contract with another, will violate the player's contract just as soon as he can do so to his advantage.

Players who jump organized ball contracts, says Fultz, will probably be enjoined from playing with the Federal League, and players who jump Federal League contracts will also

Federal League contracts will also doubtless be proceeded against. There seems little doubt but that the former actions can be maintained and it is by no means certain that players jumping Federal League contracts can not be enjoined.

The Killifer decision must not be taken as final on this point. The writer has not seen the full text of the decision, but he is of the opinion that the matter was before the court only on a motion for a preliminary injunc-tion and it may be that when the ac-tion is fully determined an injunction

Jack Coombs physically is a well man once more. Whether he again will be the "iron man" of the Athletic's pitching staff depends upon future possibilities which medical experts will not forecast. Coombs, at least, will start light work immediately, and when he feels ready to pitch a game and Manager Mack gives his consent, he will attempt his comeback performance.

Doctors Carnett, Macfarland and Brown Have examined Coombs and said his condition surpassed their expectations. His color was excellent, his spine showed more elasticity than at any time since he suffered the injury and he weighed 188 pounds. The physicians were greatly pleased, but refused to predict what the future held in store for the Mack flinger. They believe Coombs, if he gets into shape gradually, will be able to plich winning games for the champions this year.

Coombs was delighted with the verdict. He said he would start work at once and would pitch for the Athletics when Manager Mack permitted it. He probably will not go to Washington, but will work out at Shibe Park until the Mackmen return to Philadelphia next Tuesday. next Tuesday.

The past week witnessed the continuation of the Pirates' dash pennantward in the older league, but at a lessened pace, because of three days of rain and a week end defeat at the hands of the Cubs. Two other first division clubs fared equally well, the record for Pittsburgh, Brooklyn, and New York standing at three games won and lost by each. The teams today stand in the National with Philadelphia dropping back to fourth place by reason of her week of three defeats without even a single victory as a partial counterbalance. Cincinnati alone of the other clubs won more games than it lost, St. Louis, Chicago and Boston al playing below par. par.

A week of contests with Cleveland and Chicago as opponents only served to increase Detroit's advantage in the American league race, the Tigers meeting but one defeat in six games. Only on other club did better than to break even, the trio playing .500 ball being Philadelphia, St. Louis, and New York. These four clubs comprised the first division as the week's play closed. The Boston Red Sox were the exception, winning three games as against two lost, while Washington, Chicago and Cleveland lost more decisions than they won.

Though European sixes have in for-mer seasons been chiefly large, costly creations, the influence of the light American six is already seen in the latest designs of the manufacturers both in Great Britain and on the con-tinent. None of the new European sixes, however, are able to compete on a price basis with American importa-tions.

Fire fighting is being rapidly revolutionized by the automobile or motor-driven apparatus and with the sensational feats these vehicles are performing nearly every day it seems likely that the horse will soon be abandoned as a part of a fire department's equipment because of comparative inefficiency. Fast runs by automobile apparatus also diminish the possible loss from fire and in time will undoubtedly affect insurance rates.

Amarillo, Texas, recently provided a spectacular example of what can be done in this line of public service. DEADLOCK IN MARKET. Trading at Standstill Most of the Day -Price Changes Fractional.

New York, May 13.—Monotony ruled unchallenged on the stock exchange to-day. Nothing occurred to break the deadlock into which the market has been drifting for several days. Even professional traders who usually are able to find something in a dull day's news to advance as a plausible reason for buying or selling stocks bave it up and retired from the field, and the market was at a standstill much of the time. Most stocks held throughout the entire session within small fractions of entire session within small fractions of yesterday's close.
It was general opinion that the market had gone about as far as it could ket had gone about as far as it could in weighing and translating into stock movements the influences in the present uncertain situation. Accordingly it was feit that, barring the unexpected, not much could be looked for pending the clearing up of one or more important questions hanging over the market, such as Mexican mediation and the freight rate cases. Reports from Washington that the decision in the Washington that the decision in the rates cases would be announced this week were not taken seriously, and attempts to base a buying movement on them came to naught.

In the first hour prices hardened, but the upturn was checked before it attained sufficient proportions to be of significance. Toward the close the un-attained sufficient proportions to be of significance. Toward the close the undertone became heavier, influenced by pressure against Canadian Pacific and Lenigh Valley. Selling of Canadian Pacific was said to be due to liquidation of holdings taken over by 2 syndicate to a London house which was in difficulties. Slight losses were the rule at the end of the day.

London was disposed to take back some of the stocks recently unleaded here. Trading for foreign account, however, amounted to only about 5,000 shares. Foreign exchange rates relaxed from their unusually high points and it was thought probable that no more gold would be shipped abroad for the present, unless special inducements should be held out.
